ABOUT

Singer/songwriter Dián began singing professionally at 7 years old. Growing up in Virginia, the USVI and Puerto Rico, she was exposed to a wondrous mix of tropical music styles. As a child prodigy, she performed with jazz trumpet legend Dizzy Gillespie, singing and scatting at the Kool Jazz festival on a riverboat in Magens Bay U.S.V.I. From that Riverboat to the stages in New York, California, Washington DC, Japan, Thailand and beyond, she's experienced in performing internationally in venues all around the world solo or with bands. Dián sings in English and Latin. Collaborates & records with legends including Stevie Wonder, Stanley Clarke, Chick Corea, Robin Trower, Tito Puente, Ronnie Laws, Najeé, Michael Hoppé, Henry Franklin, Wilton Felder, Barbara Morrison, Obba Babatunde, Della Reese, Wadada, Al Williams. As an actress Dián shines in musicals, playing Sarah Vaughan, in a role she created for the Quincy Jones nominated, NAACP Award Winning Play "Chicago Club Rumboogie".

The genres Dián sings are Rock n Roll, Jazz, Pop, Motown, Rhythm & Blues, Reggae, Traditional Latin and Southern Rock. Her cover catalog is 350+ strong and as diverse as the genres she sings. From Bruno Mars, Sia, Amy Winehouse, Etta James, Nat King Cole, Michael Jackson, Johnny Mathis, Queen, Elton John, Donna Summer, Stevie Wonder, Frank Sinatra, Elvis Presley, Jobim, Beatles, Aretha Franklin, Jackie Wilson, Sam Cooke, Smokey Robinson, Led Zeppelin, Van Morrison, Ed Sheeran, Taylor Swift, etc. Dián's original music is featured in her Irish rock band Dragon Parade, electronic dance alias Sky Henry and her nuevo jazz band Quool. Her eclectic writing sets the framework for each recording to bring out the best. Commercial ambassador brands Dián's worked with include Remy Martin, Budweiser, Hennessy VSOP, Martell Cognac. Dián is an independent artist listed with the European Jazz Network. Passport is current and Dián is available for immediate bookings and international residency's. References available.
